RIOTS IN CHICAGO.

Scenes of Disorder Resulted From the Inauguration of the Carmen's Strike.

SEVERAL CARS WERE WRECKED.

Many Persons, Non-Union Street Car Men, Injured by Flying Stones or Splintered Glass.

The Strike Breakers Returned to the Barns and Refused to Go Out Unless Their Trains Were Guarded By the Police.

Chicago, Nov. 13.—Constant scenes of disorder over a district approximately 50 square miles in extent resulted Thursday from the inauguration of a strike by the employees of one of the two principal surface street railway companies in Chicago. All along the lines wherever cars were started strike sympathizers made desperate onslaughts on the crews, beginning at dawn Thursday and continuing as long as cars remained on the tracks. The tie-up was made complete.

A number of cars were wrecked and that no person was killed is no fault of the rioters. One man had his back broken and the first shot of the strike was fired at Wentworth avenue and West Sixty-Ninth street, where a mob of several hundred persons tried to hold up a train.

Many persons, chiefly non-union street car men, were injured by flying stones or splintered glass. Two women were among those hurt.

Excepting a few dozen passengers who had to flee from the cars, the 300,000 daily patrons of the company were forced to all sorts of other methods in order to get down town and back.

With faces and hands bleeding from the attacks of the strikers, motormen, gripmen and conductors, who tried to run trains, returned to the barns and refused to go out again unless the trains bore platoons of police or patrol wagons were alongside.

The police confined their efforts to seeing that the passage of cars from the barns was unobstructed and that crowds and blockades in the streets were quickly cleared. This was done under orders from Mayor Carter H. Harrison, whose announced purpose was to preserve an impartial attitude, taking sides neither for nor against the strikers or the street car company, which, though known as the Chicago City railway, is a private corporation, the lines of which extend through the south side of the city radiating from the business center.

Developments regarding the attitude of the municipal administration hinge largely upon a new official, Herman F. Schuetter, who Thursday, under appointment from the mayor, assumed the duties of assistant chief of police. Schuetter will be in direct charge of police arrangements during the contest.

Possibilities of federal intervention under certain contingencies are discussed. The situation in this aspect was outlined Thursday by Postmaster Coyne.

The attempt to run passenger trains with non-union crews was abandoned during the afternoon and with the exception of the mail car service, which was carried out according to the regular schedule, traffic on all the lines controlled by the company was at a complete standstill. Another effort will be made by the management of the road Friday morning to break the strike. According to statements made by the officials Thursday night as many trains as can be manned by non-union crews will be put in service for the early morning rush. Each train will carry half a dozen policemen as a body guard to protect the crews from the violence of strike sympathizers.

Degregatory remarks regarding the union by an armed non-union employee of the company caused a riot at Thirty-sixth and State streets Thursday night. The man was chased into the engine house nearby and before the police could reach the spot a mob of 2,000 persons surrounded the place howling for the life of the refugee. A squad of policemen after a great deal of difficulty finally quelled the disturbance and removed the man to a place of safety.

Elected President.

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 13.—W. E. Tudor, Murphreysboro, Ill., was elected president of the International Union of Flour and Cereal Mill employees, succeeding John M. Finley, who resigned after urging the men to abandon the strike in the Minneapolis flour mills.

Attacked By Spanish Vessels.

Ferrol, Spain, Nov. 13.—Two British steamers arrived in a damaged condition and told a strange story of being attacked by 25 Spanish vessels, the crews of which threw stones and fired at them and took to flight.

AN EXCITING FIRE.

A Torpedo Boat Destroyer Damaged and Crew Overcome By Smoke.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 13.—Lieut. Roland L. Curtin and several seamen on board the torpedo boat destroyer Lawrence Thursday saved the craft from destruction. A lighted candle left by a workman on a wooden box in the vessel's forward compartment caused a fire which burned much of the Lawrence's woodwork before it was extinguished by Lieut. Curtin and some seamen just before the flames reached the magazine in which a quantity of explosive was stored. Lieut. Curtin and his men were overcome by smoke and lost consciousness after the fire was extinguished. Their condition is not serious.

The fire occurred in a stuffy compartment directly adjoining the magazine and had gained considerable headway when it was discovered. The place was filled with a dense smoke that baffled the efforts of the crew and caused them to fall helpless to the steel floor. Time and again Lieut. Curtin dived into the smoke and emerged with the unconscious form of a seaman. After resuscitation the seaman and officer returned to the fire only to succumb again to the smoke. When the flames were extinguished the Lieutenant was missed. A sailor plunged into the compartment and brought out the asphyxiated officer. Five seamen in a similar condition were stretched out on the deck. All were hurried on board the Olympia in dry dock and the surgeons soon brought them to consciousness.

MET ON A CURVE.

Six Men Killed and Two Injured, One Probably Fatally, in a Wreck.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 13.—Two heavy freight trains, one of them a double-header, collided in a dense fog near New Hope, Ky., on the Knoxville division of the Louisville & Nashville early Thursday, killing six trainmen and injuring two, one probably fatally. The trains met on a reverse curve at the top of an embankment, 30 feet high. The three engines were completely demolished, and nearly every car of both trains landed at the foot of the fill. Fire soon broke out, and 15 cars of merchandise and coal were destroyed. Special relief trains were sent from this city and Lebanon, and the bodies of the trainmen were recovered about 10 o'clock. Hume, who was the only one of the men found alive under the wreckage, had his jaw torn off and was otherwise badly hurt. The corps of rescuers had, after much difficulty, taken Hume from under a car of coke and were bearing him towards the special train when a carload of gunpowder reached by the flames exploded with terrific force. Fortunately none of the rescuing party was injured. Brakeman Winkler jumped and was badly hurt. Passengers were transferred around the wreck. It was late in the afternoon before the track was cleared.

Following is a list of casualties: The dead—M. S. Cannon, engineer, Lebanon Junction; Ed Sturgis, engineer, Louisville; Moreland Graves, engineer, Lebanon Junction; John Reynolds, fireman, London, Ky.; John Leach, fireman, Lebanon Junction; Wm. Lyden, fireman, Louisville, Ky. The injured—Reid Humes, brakeman, seriously, and taken to Elizabeth hospital, Lebanon; J. A. Winkler, brakeman, injuries not serious.

BLOODY CONFLICT.

Baptist Minister Killed and Three Seriously Injured.

Brinkley, Ky., Nov. 13.—On Quicksand creek, a few miles from here, John Green, Baptist minister, was killed; Brice Green and John Green, Jr., were seriously cut, and William Hanshaw was fatally stabbed, while the minister's horse was shot dead under him.

Wilson Hanshaw, Jr., and Brice Green became involved in a fist fight, and the elder Hanshaw and Green tried to separate them, when John Green, Jr., drew his revolver and began firing at Wilson Hanshaw, Sr. Wilson Hanshaw, Jr., also began shooting. All the others drew knives and fought at close range.

Both Claim a Majority.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 13.—Returns from all the counties in the Eleventh congressional district, with only a few precincts missing, give Dr. Godfrey Hunter 5,022; D. C. Edwards, 3,849; John D. White, prohibitionist, 2,064. These figures are disputed by Edwards, who claims that the official count will give him a majority of over 300.

Struck An Oil Lake.

Burkesville, Ky., Nov. 13.—The New Domain Oil Co. drilled in well No. 3 on the Heard farm in the Salt Lick Bend oil field. At a depth of 690 feet oil was struck and the auger fell a distance of 12 feet, thus indicating that an oil lake is at the bottom of the hole.

PANAMA'S TROOPS

The New Republic Will Be Able to Raise Over 5,000 Soldiers, Partly Armed.

SECESSION MOVEMENT A SUCCESS

The Unanimous Feeling Throughout the Isthmus Is in Favor of the New Government.

Gen. Reyes, the Commissioner From Colombia, Will Not Be Received at Colon Unless He Recognizes the New Republic.

Colon, Nov. 13.—Complete success already crowns the secession movement and on the Isthmus of Panama affairs continue to be as orderly as they have been since the change of government. All government functions have thus far been carried on with success and the unanimous feeling throughout Panama in favor of the new government is far beyond what its promoters anticipated, when they declared the independence of the Isthmus on November 3. The municipal and provincial laws and regulations which existed under the government of Colombia have been continued without any practical change. With three or four exceptions all the civil employees of Colon and its neighborhood have been continued in office. Those who refused to take the oath were sent to Savanilla.

But for the new uniforms of the volunteer soldiers of the young republic on the streets of Colon and the one Panama flag flying over the town hall there appears nothing in the daily life of Colon to indicate a change of society. Porfirio Melendez, new civil and military governor of Colon, Thursday expressed his full realization of what Panama owed to the United States, calling that country "The new republic's powerful and generous godmother." Gen. Melendez said:

"Panama will be able to raise between five and six thousand troops, partly armed, in case the necessity arises to resist a Colombian attack, but I do not believe that any such necessity will ever arise."

Regarding the mission of Gen. Reyes, Gov. Melendez said:

"A telegram has been received by the government of Panama that Gen.

Reyes is coming to the Isthmus in the hope of saving Colombia's honor, and is ready on behalf of the Colombian government to promise Panama all concessions and considerations. The Panama government, however, has answered that unless Gen. Reyes comes ready to recognize the new republic and accredited to it as the Colombian envoy, he will not be received."

Gov. Melendez further said that he would arrest Gen. Reyes on his arrival unless he immediately accepted Panama's stipulations. The general is due to arrive at Barranquilla at the end of this week.

It is apparent that United States warships will not permit any movement by sea or armed forces. Gov. Melendez tried to send 25 armed men to Portobelo, but they were stopped by the United States gunboat Nashville and compelled to return. A schooner loaded with Panama troops was sent Wednesday to Bocas del Toro, but they went unarmed.

No news has been received of any attempt on the part of Colombia to move troops to the Isthmus.

DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.

The Church Will Erect a Building on the World's Fair Grounds.

Cincinnati, Nov. 13.—At the meeting of the Disciples of Christ in Detroit last month, J. H. Garretson and James H. Allen, of St. Louis, and S. M. Cooper, of Cincinnati, were appointed a committee to arrange for a building for the church on the exposition grounds at St. Louis. Information was received Thursday that the site had been secured and it is announced that an octagonal building would be constructed on the grounds at St. Louis, a fac simile of the study of Alexander Campbell, the founder of the church at Bethel, W. Va.

Editor Walton Fined.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 13.—Editor W. P. Walton was fined $25 and costs in Magistrate Payne's court on the charge of assault with a pistol on Dave Griffith, his former foreman. Walton claimed that Griffith attacked him with brass knucks.

Irvine E. Allen Fined $300.

Jackson, Ky., Nov. 13.—The jury in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Irvine E. Allen rendered a verdict fining Allen $300 for shooting off Wash Noble's thumb nail six months ago. The trouble came up over a disputed haulway for logs.

Representative Lovering (Mass.) reintroduced his bill of last session to make the currency responsive to the varying needs of business. The speaker announced the ways and means committee as follows: Republicans—Messrs. Payne (N. Y.), Dalzell (Pa.), Grosvenor (O.), Tawney (Minn.), McCull (Mass.), Babcock (Wis.), Metcalf (Cal.), Hill (Ct.), Boutelle (Ill.), Watson (Ind.), Curtis (Kan.). Democrats—Messrs. Williams (Miss.), Robertson (La.), Swanson (Va.), McClellan (N. Y.), Cooper (Tex.), Clark (Mo.).

BUREAU OF NATIONAL HOMES.

Bill Introduced to Provide Homes For the Homeless Poor.

Washington, Nov. 13.—For the purpose of "providing homes and employment for the homeless poor and making them self-sustaining home owners, independent of being hired," Senator Hoar Thursday by request introduced in the senate a bill to create a bureau of national homes to be placed under the direction of the secretary of agriculture. The bill authorizes the secretary to advise the secretary of the interior to withdraw from market and settlement 140,000,000 acres of government lands, grouping them together in as large tracts as possible.

Under the bill the secretary of agriculture is directed to prepare the land for occupation as national homes for farmers, and others, who will till the soil and receive the proceeds of their labors with the exception of amounts which will be set aside to reimburse the government for its expense in preparing the lands and building homes for the tenants. It is planned to use the property for the benefit of all able bodied poor. The bill was referred to the committee on public lands.

POSTAL AFFAIRS.

The Gross Receipts at Fifty of the Largest Post Offices.

Washington, Nov. 13.—The statement of the gross postal receipts at 50 of the largest post offices for October, 1903, as compared with October, 1902, shows an aggregate receipt of $5,960,310, a net increase of almost 7 per cent. New York's receipts shows an increase of 10 per cent, and Chicago 7 per cent increase. The largest percentage of increase was 23 per cent, at Atlanta, with 18 per cent, at Indianapolis. The decreases were: Philadelphia, Jersey City, Peoria, Ill., St. Paul and Newark, N. J.

THE REVISED STATUTES.

A Bill Introduced Amending the Extra-dition Section.

Washington, Nov. 13.—Representative James, of Kentucky, Thursday introduced a bill amending the extradition section of the revised statutes so as to require state officers to arrest and deliver persons who are fugitives from justice from other states, upon the presentation of proper warrants signed by the governor of the state making the requisition. The bill is intended to cover the case of former Gov. Taylor, of Kentucky.

ACTORS FIGHT.

Michael McNeill Severely Stabbed in the Face By Timothy Hickey.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 13.—Michael McNeill, leading member of the "Mississippi Bob White" Opera Co., was severely stabbed Thursday in the face by Timothy Hickey in a saloon at Benwood. The company was on its way from Bellair and, while waiting to take a train at Benwood, McNeill and others entered a saloon. An argument was started by Hickey, and he drew a knife and slashed McNeill under the eye. Hickey fled to Bellair, but was brought back and placed in jail.

MAGAZINE RIFLES.

They Are Markedly Superior to Those of the Present Service Arm.

THE CHIEF OF ORDNANCE'S REPORT

Experiments With the Sixteen Inch Gun Were Attended With Entire Success, Says Gen. Crozier.

The Heavy Armament of the Seacoast Defenses Is Reported to Be in a Satisfactory State of Advancement.

Washington, Nov. 13.—Brig. Gen. William Crozier, chief of ordnance, has submitted his annual report to the chief of staff of the army. It deals minutely with many experiments to improve the military armament. On the subject of the United States magazine rifle, Gen. Crozier says that the results obtained from the few which were made by hand were so satisfactory as to secure the approval of the secretary of war for the adoption of this pattern. The reduction in the length of the barrel from 30 to 24 inches, Gen. Crozier says, met unanimous approval in all arms of the service. The general design and ballistic qualities of this rifle, the report says, are markedly superior to those of the present service arm. Gen. Crozier says that no automatic musket of satisfactory mechanical action has been presented. Nor does he think that the experiments with automatic pistols warrant the abandonment of the present service revolver for any of the types tried.

Experiments conducted with the 16-inch gun, called for in the report of the fortifications board, were attended with entire success, the report says. At the fourth round, with a charge of 640 pounds of a special smokeless powder and a 2,400 pound projectile, a velocity of 2,317 feet a second, with a pressure of 36,700 pounds a square inch, was attained.

He adds that the use of smokeless powder in such large charges "was beyond the experience of the world," and the demonstration that it would, when so used, follow the same law of burning as with charges of the size previously employed, is a service to the art of construction of ordnance.

The heavy armament of the seacoast defenses, Gen. Crozier reports to be in a satisfactory state of advancement, but says that the practice which produces skill in the use of the armament has now an importance greater than that of new installation.

Gen. Crozier dwells on the importance of proper defense of our insular possessions, saying:

"It may be, and probably is, true that permanent possession of the islands could not be maintained continuously against an enemy that commanded the sea approaches thereto, but in the vicissitudes of war the contingency must be contemplated of a temporary loss of sea power in particular waters and the necessity recognized for providing against the occurrence of complete disaster during such interval, so that it would seem the part of common prudence to provide works which should enable a smaller force to hold out against a larger one for a time."

The report says there have been issued to the militia free of charge a total of 69,063 magazine rifles and 3,605 carbines, with accompanying accoutrements and equipments, aggregating in value $1,269,488.

NEW LIGHT SHIPS.

The Contract For the Construction of Five Has Been Awarded.

Washington, Nov. 13.—With the approval of Secretary Cortelyou, of the department of commerce and labor, the light house board has awarded to the New York Shipbuilding Co., of Camden, N. J., contracts for the construction of five new lightships authorized by the last congress, the law providing that each ship should cost, complete, not to exceed $90,000, and $450,000 was appropriated to pay the cost of their construction.

The ships are to be of the first class, to be built of steel, to be able to run under their own steam and to carry steam fog signals. They will be identical in all respects. The New York Shipbuilding Co. agrees to construct the vessels for $82,000 each, to be completed in 12

At the recent election the Democrats carried eight of the thirteen counties in this Congressional district, their majority being over 1,200.

The strongest kick against improving the city fire department comes from those members of the volunteer companies who never go near a fire.

If the State of New York can afford to spend $100,000,000 improving her canals, the National Government certainly can afford to spend $40,000,000 improving the Ohio river.

It is contended that an improved fire department would do away with the present volunteer service. Well, the city might be able to get along without the volunteers, if an improved department is established, don't you think?

It is charged that the present volunteer fire companies, with perhaps one exception, refuse to admit any new members, and the reason assigned is that it would lessen the yearly "divvy." What the property owners demand is better protection from fire.

THERE was one case of smallpox in Ashland reported Wednesday, three at Ironton and three at Catlettsburg. Kenova and Ceredo are full of it, and it would be well for our Board of Health to be vigilant. "An ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure."

John Hayden was arrested at Vincennes Ind., this week and sent to the penitentiary the same day. He confessed to setting fire to a barn the night before. It is alleged that he has been firing buildings in the neighborhood for years. The fire bug who has been burning barns and stables in this city and county ought to be disposed of as promptly as Hayden if he is ever captured.

Making Gadding Unpopular.

[Emporia (Kan.) Gazette.]

Two years ago the Gazette went after the mothers of Emporia for neglecting their daughters, and the result was that half a dozen private mail boxes were discontinued and a lot of little girls that were in the habit of gadding too much were kept in for a time. Those girls are now developing into fine young women, but another crop of the gadding girls has come on, and the Gazette hopes no one's modesty will be shocked by saying these little hussies ought to be spanked good and hard.

TERRIFIC SPEED

Of a Record-Breaking Electric Car, Which Overtook a Flying Bird.

[Railroad Gazette.]

The results of the experiments with great speeds on the Military Railroad from Berlin to Zossen, 143 miles, in which a speed was reached greater than ever attained heretofore by any living creature on the face of the earth, are epoch making.

It was intended in these experiments to ascertain not only the practicability of great speed, but, as exactly as possible, its cost; but naturally the figures for this cannot be given at once. Meanwhile some popular accounts of the trial of October 6, when a maximum speed of 200.8 kilometers (124.8 miles) per hour was reached, give some interesting facts. The acting "motor-man" in this case was Dr. Reichel, an engineer of the Siemens & Halske Company, who wrote an account of the run for a Berlin weekly. The car left the Berlin station, Marienfelde, at 9:55 a. m. and reached Zossen, 14 miles distant, eight minutes later, having made an average speed from start to stop of 107 miles per hour. On starting, the current of each of the four motors was increased gradually to 350 amperes making at the maximum about 2,600 horse power, and this to move a single car, weighing, however, 200,000 pounds. Within 1½ miles a speed of 74 miles an hour was reached, which five eighths of a mile further on had increased to 93 miles. A curve of 5,000 feet radius was entered at about 108 miles an hour and at that speed it seemed as if the track was broken in front of the car. On leaving the curve an up grade of only 26 feet per mile required an additional 300 horse power to maintain the speed. At a station four and one fourth miles from the start switches were passed without shock at a speed of 112 to 115 miles per hour. The switches had been prepared for the occasion.

At road crossings fragments of ballast as large as walnuts were blown into the air behind the train. The car being hung low, to one looking forward it seemed as if it swallowed the track literally, mile after mile. At one place there was a blow on window near the motor-stand as loud as a blow of a fist on a table. It was caused by a bird overtaken in his flight. A speed of 124.8 miles per hour was first reached 8.7 miles from the starting point. Only a kilometer was run at this speed. The remainder of the run was made without current. On inspecting the car after its run its front end was found covered with flies, bees, and other small insects, looking as if they had been crushed under the thumb-nail against the glass and iron.

HOW WE MAINTAIN OUR

Cloak Standard

Eternal vigilance is the price of keeping our extensive stock of coats up to the requisite standard of perfection. Lines in which sizes have become broken, garments that show the least sign of handling, models that for unaccountable reasons move slowly, colors that are found in only extreme sizes, be they large or small, must be weeded out. This process is going on continually, hence to-day you'll find a table in our cloak department piled high with coats that have suffered drastic price reductions. Materials—Kersey, melton, cheviot. Colors—Tan, blue, castor, black. Sizes—32, 34, 36. Linings—Silk or satin. Style—Semi-fitting. Prices—$7.50 to $12.50. Now $3.98.

Judge Without Prejudice.

Advertisers who are honest and intelligent dispense exaggeration. To such the task of presenting a very strong case is hard and it's made harder by the prevalent style of superlatives for all things at all times. Your judgment is naturally influenced by such conditions. Therefore, conservative and literal as we try to be and as you know us, it's almost beyond your credence, isn't it, to accept our statement of $15 hats for $5? We want you to judge without prejudice. Examine, compare, bring your best millinery knowledge to bear on the statement that every hat in our stock from $15 down to $6.50 is now yours to choose for $5.

New York Security and Warehouse Company to Finance the Association.

At Thursday's meeting of the tobacco growers' association at Lexington over 300 delegates representing forty counties in the burley district were present. The talks made and the arguments advanced showed that fully 70 per cent. of the present crop of Burley tobacco was assigned to the care and control of the association.

The special committee which had been appointed presented its report, which, in effect, stated that the proposition of the New York Security and Warehouse Company of New York to finance the concern to the extent of $10,000,000, was conditioned upon the association raising $2,500,000, or 15 per cent. of the aggregate amount. When this fact was made known through the report a vote was taken as to whether the amount required should be raised or not, and upon a division being called for it resulted in a unanimous vote in favor of the proposition.

IT IS SAFE TO SAY

That we clothe the majority of well-dressed men and boys in Mason County. Our Stein-Bloch, Adler Bros' Men's Suits and Overcoats and our Garson Meyer young men's Suits and Overcoats are the magnets that draw the intelligent buyer. Whilst these lines are the highest types of tailor-made clothes, our prices are no higher, indeed in many instances not as high, as you would pay for Clothing that does not compare with above lines. The same conditions rule in our Shoe and Hat department. THE BEST ONLY, and prices modest and conservative.

See our fall Manhattan Cheviot Shirts. They are simply "elegant." Our Underwear, Cap and Gloves stock is so large and comprehensive that we can please everybody.
